Identify the needs which you can handle yourself.
Obtain the necessary material from people with knowledge and expertise.
Get someone to come and present it.
Work in cooperation with another assembly.

PRIORITIES ARE FIRST PRIORITY

1. Keeping busy doesn't make you important,
but
keeps you away from important things.
2. It's not how hard you work,
but
how effectively you work.
3. It's not if my day is full,
but
what fills my day?
4. It's not if I visit people,
but
whom do I visit?
5. Am I busy with an action,
or
am I busy with a reaction?
6. It is just as important to decide what isn't going to be done, as
to decide what is going to be done.
7. Does the telephone dictate to my programme,
or
does my programme dictate to the telephone?
8. Organise according to priorities and
not according to feelings.
9. We often wait to react to crises
while
we must give direction to avoid crises.
10. Do you control your programme,
or
does your programme control you.

TO CORRECT PRIORITIES
YOU MUST BE ABLE TO CHANGE

1. Habit plays a large role.
2. Your temperament plays a large role.
3. Panic plays a role.
4. Pride and image plays a role.
5. Maintaining a tradition plays a role.
6. People's demands plays a role.
7. Other programmes plays a role.
8. _____
9. _____
10. _____
11. _____
12. _____

A PERSON CHANGES FOR THREE REASONS

1. A crisis forces them to change.
2. Their knowledge expands, therefore they want to change.
3. They are equipped, therefore they can change.

PARETO PRINCIPLE 20% AGAINST 80%

The top 20% of your priorities give 80% of your results.

1. 20% of the assembly do 80% of the work.
2. 20% of the assembly give 80% of the tithes.
3. 20% of the assembly take 80% of your time.
4. 20% of the assembly bring 80% growth.
5. 20% of the assembly take 80% of the decisions.
6. 20% of your time gives 80% results.
7. 20% of your programmes give 80% success.
8. 20% of a book gives 80% of the content.
9. 20% of a sermon gives 80% of the impact.
10. 20% of people eat 80% of the food at a picnic.

HOW TO DETERMINE PRIORITIES

THREE IMPORTANT QUESTIONS:

1. What must I do as the pastor that no one else in the assembly can do?

- | | |
|----------|----------|
| a. _____ | b. _____ |
| c. _____ | d. _____ |
| e. _____ | f. _____ |

2. What gives the best results in the assembly?

- | | |
|----------|----------|
| a. _____ | b. _____ |
| c. _____ | d. _____ |
| e. _____ | f. _____ |

3. What gives me most joy and motivation?

- | | |
|----------|----------|
| a. _____ | b. _____ |
| c. _____ | d. _____ |
| e. _____ | f. _____ |

THE PASTOR'S TIME MANAGEMENT

20%		80%
HERE THE PASTOR SHOULD SPEND 80% OF HIS TIME TO EQUIP THE 20% TO CARE FOR THE OTHER 80%	1	CORE GROUP
N.B. NOT FORMING A "CLIQUE", BUT EQUIPPING	2
THE QUIET GROUP	3	BE CAREFUL OF OTHER PRIORITIES THAT DON'T PRODUCE FRUIT - LIKE GOOD FRIENDS THEY ARE POSSIBLY NOT LEADERS AND ARE UNPRODUCTIVE

JESUS AND HIS TWELVE DISCIPLES

LAY MINISTRIES:

1. How many leaders are there in the assembly?
2. How many leaders live out their ministries in the assembly?
3. How many leaders can the pastor supplement?
